Astondoa 59

A unique yacht that does everything right in terms of looks and performance. This Astondoa 59 is also a godsend. This Astondoa is being sold for a very attractive price, but still needs a lot of love. The Astondoa 59 is not yet ready to sail. The yacht needs some attention to bring her back into good technical condition. The engines are disconnected and need major maintenance.

For those who love a luxury yacht with every comfort on board The Astondoa 59 is made to go. We cannot describe it any better. Its modern appearance sends a clear message. Expectations are undoubtedly met by the powerful MAN V8 diesel engines. The yacht is equipped with 2 engines of 900HP each. These engines provide the Astondoa with flashy performance if desired. But relaxed cruising goes with just as much ease.
